Submitted as a verification of declarations made by the children of Elisha Ferris Johnston (Mary Johnson Flaughner et al) who often declared that they had personally seen, in their early youth, a pair of cuff-buttons and a watch, heirlooms in their family, upon which was engraved the above Coat of Arms.

Quotations by Burke only strengthen certain claims which have ceased to be passed on by more recent generations.

JOHNSTONE
(JOHNSTON)
SHIELD
America Heraldica
FR 929-6, Plate XII, Reg 91.
By BURKE

The Scotch Earldom of Hartfelt and Marquisote of Annandale titled since 1792 County Dumfries.

It is claimed and firmly believed that full research could establish the legitimate heirs to this Scotch title and to valuable estates by some American citizen.

Seal asserted by Dr. John Johnston who emigrated to America in 1685 and settled at Amboy, N.J.

Governor Gabriel Johnston of North Carolina used the "three cushion" arms in 1734, his brother John, Surveyor General of the Province was the father of Governor Samuel Johnston, a leading statesman of North Carolina who died in 1816 - family of repute and distinction.

Conclusion relative to Andrew Johnston - (Written for the family and unsubstantiated by fact)

At the time I worked on the Beatty-Johnstone records a Sarah Timmons, wife of The Rev. Thomas J. Timmons III, recognized the Shield and Crest (shown on the first page) as one belonging to her Grandfather Johnstone from a North Carolina family and on their family tree there was an Andrew from Ireland so, at this point, I can only assume that it was the Andrew that our papers record and the family, not having any further word of Andrew, had assumed that the Indians had either killed or captured him on his way south. Incidentally, Sarah's resemblance to my great grandmother Johnson was almost startling. (I have an old tintype picture of her.)

Note: Elisha Farris Johnston, Jr., who later changed his name to read Johnson, was born March 4, 1796 in Cork, Ireland, from whence, at the age of 24, he emigrated to America, arrived at Quebec, Canada, May 20, 1820.

He acquired 100 acres of government timberland on the St. Francis River, 8 miles from Drummondville, cleared 10 acres and built himself a log house, became a member of the Episcopal Church at Drummondville, attended regularly and occasionally assisted in reading the services.

In the year 1822 a wealthy lumber merchant, named Campbell and who came from Quebec, built a large saw-mill at the rapids where he also established a store engaging Elisha as general superintendent and manager over 30 or 40 mill hands constituting 2 gangs, 10 saws for one and 12 for the other. He remained with Campbell 4 or 5 years.

About the year 1827 he, in company with a Mr. Bowland purchased a saw mill and flour mill six miles distant on a small stream which emptied into the St. Francis River. For six or seven years he prospered here, shipping by raft to Quebec.

Here he married Elizabeth Johnson, the daughter of a highly educated gentleman who kept a government school after his retirement from the English army.

In the year 1832 Elisha was induced to abandon all his business interests in Canada and move to Sandusky, Ohio because of his wife's illness and because her relations, the Deattys, were living near Sandusky.

Elisha Ferris Johnston, Sr., was born in Cork, Ireland about the year 1771 and died in the year 1814.

He left an estate reported to be appraised at between 500,000 and 600,000 pounds, comprised of real estate and personal property which included some of the buildings in Cork.

He was a Revenue Officer at Limerick, was the father of twelve sons, seven of whom lived to majority, viz: Andrew, Frank, Elisha Jr., James, Henry, Thomas and Richard.

Andrew, being the oldest son, inherited all of the real estate, his mother inherited all the personal property except that which was devised by Will to the remaining children.

Frank, Elisha and James enlisted in the 46th Regiment (English Army) intending to go to the East Indies; Frank was discharged on account of being under size.

Having served about one year Elisha, thru the interposition of his brother Andrew, was released from the service before the regiment departed for the East Indies.

It was at this period that Elisha, Frank, Henry and Thomas with two cousins came to America, May 1820. Thomas, however, returned to Ireland the same month; Richard came to America in 1821.

After coming in possession of his share of the estate Andrew purchased Orchard Hill, Ballanydee, consisting of a large farm, large slate quarry and a large stone dwelling.

Later, in the year 1819, he too came to America but was never again heard from by his relatives and all knowledge of his future is lost. His intentions were to come to one of our southern states. #(See Conclusion with reference to further information on Andrew).

Richard and Henry were supposed to have settled in lower Canada near the boundary line of the State of Maine.

Frank, as secretary to a wealthy merchant, left Quebec for the West Indies shortly after his arrival in Canada. He also disappeared and his future remains a mystery. He had the best education of all the brothers, also a fine position in the Customs House at Quebec where he became acquainted with said merchant.

Thomas was his mother's favorite son, being the only one of the children she was privileged to nurse; it is presumed that he died in Ireland. (Elisha Farris Johnston Jr. changed the spelling of his name to Johnson after he married the Johnson sisters, - they were not otherwise related

- FINIS - Believing the foregoing to be correct, also that it will ever be impossible to again assemble this record, I herewith surrender its continuance to future generations. (Sgd) Ross Ellsworth Parker, Toledo, Ohio. 1932

An old abstract of land title, later in the possession of James Beatty, Esq. shows grants of land were made to Henry Betagh in 1611 by Parliament. (He had the distinction of being termed "Gentleman".) Said lands were also in the name of John Beatty, the grandson, and portions of the same estate were, in the year 1873, in the possession of his lineal descendants. The name was spelled differently before the year 1675.

JOHN BEATTY (designated by ) came to America in the year 1792 from Ballycannoe (sometimes spelled Ballycannow), County Wexford, Ireland. For reasons unknown, he returned to Ireland but again in 1796 he came to America and settled in New London, Conn. In the year 1810 he came to what was then called the "Firelands" of Ohio, in and about Sandusky, and purchased 40,000 acres of land including what is now the town of Milan (Thomas Edison's birthplace).

He married Mary Cook of Philadelphia, Penna. October 22, 1796. She was born in Enniskillen, County Fermanagh, Ireland, and came to America with her parents and settled at Norwich, Conn., thence in 1803 to Milan, Ohio.

Their home was known in that district as the "Stone House" near the Huron River.

In the year 1829 they moved to Sandusky where they purchased from Jay Cook's father their home on Columbus Avenue (later used as the Second National Bank Building). (Jay Cook, relative of Mary Cook, was a distinguished financier during the Civil War. He was the owner of a castle on an island near Put-in-Bay, Lake Erie) (Gibraltar Island).

Said John Beatty was the first Clerk of Perkins Township, first Postmaster, local minister, merchant and Justice of the Peace in 1833. He was elected Mayor of the City of Sandusky, built a church on the public square and later donated it to the Wesleyan Methodist Society and still later taken over by the Lutherans.

He was the grand father of General John Beatty who served with distinction during the Civil War.

He died and was buried in the "Old Stone Place" surrounded by the graves of many relatives. All graves moved to Oakland Cemetery

At the Heraldry's office in Dublin, Ireland may be noted among the records that one James Gurley came over from Scotland in the year 1100. He was an ancestor of Rev. William Gurley, husband of Susanna Beatty.

The Beatty coat-of-arms was a Lion rampant, the crest of a Lion's head and neck, field pearl or argent, but no motto.

William's father held a high office in the navy department. The Chamberlains of Philadelphia, Pa. were wealthy and related to Susanna Beatty. They were of the Society of Friends. Some of the family adhered to the Church of England, some were Methodists but most were Catholics.

Thus, we trace the early ancestry of these relatives back to the year 1600. Ross E. Parker, Toledo, Ohio. 1932.
